

“Music and the Social Model”

A Journey Towards

Accessible Music-Making

Date: TBA, 10am-4pm

Where: Kings Arms, Okehampton
The Buccaneers, Crediton

Cost: £50pp Introductory Buy One Get One Free

One day workshop to:

Introduce the Social Model of Disability

- Think about unequal and equal access to music
- Introduce the concept of ‘Journey’ as a tool for planning, deliver, evaluation and reflection
- Explore ways of creating accessible environments for music-making
- Introduce some theories and models

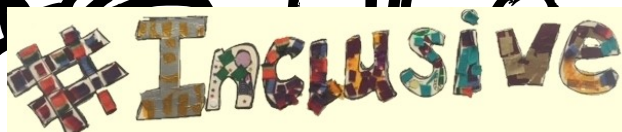

(To include: Activity Analysis, Intensive Interaction, developmental approaches to skill acquisition, developmental play theory, multi-sensory approaches and the role of ‘adaptation’)

Music and the Social Model by Jane Q Williams will also be available at the special price of £14 (RRP £19.99)

If you would like to book a place on the course, please contact The Turning Tides Project by email at theturningtidesproject@hotmail.com or phone 01363 772512.

 National Foundation for Youth Music

 Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

 daisi
arts inspired learning

